

Mime Time

This activity is played in small groups. A person chooses a Situation Card and an Attitude Card, and then forms a team. The team mimes the situation. The rest of the group has to guess what the situation was and what the attitude was. After each mime, discuss whether or not attitudes were shown, and if not, what could have happened that would have been more helpful. Does this situation need a rule or a habit?

Someone's bedroom is a mess (2)	Someone has their phone at the dinner table and is ignoring everyone else (3-4)
Someone left a toy in the middle of the lounge room and someone else stepped on it and broke it (2)	Someone was supposed to wash the dishes but instead they were playing computer games (2)
Two people want the same toy at the same time. (3)	Someone is too busy working to play with their children (2-3)
Someone is doing all of the gardening by themselves and no-one else wants to help (3)	Someone stayed up too late last night and today they're irritable (2-3)
Someone got angry and hit their brother or sister (3)	Someone borrowed something from someone else without asking for it (2)

Forgiving	Helpful
